From the Desk of Rev. Throckmorton...

Dear Friends,

While Lent begins at the end of February this year, the heart of the season is in the month of March. In Vermont, where Mary and I first lived after we were married, it's widely said that there are five seasons, the fifth being what's known as "mud season." Mud season begins in March and goes into early May, as the snow melts and turns the dirt roads into that ever-present muck. So Lent begins in that rather gloomy period when everything is a mess.

Just when the mud comes, though, so also in March we start to really notice the days lengthening and the sun making its presence felt. The word "Lent" comes from the same word as "lengthen," and it marks those lengthening days.

Lent really has both of those faces. It's a time of looking inward and noticing the shortcomings and failings that dot our lives. It's a time for confessing to God the ways in which we have fallen short in our attempts to be true to holy ways. It's a time to make amends for the sins we've committed. Who in our lives have we let down? And how can we make it right? These are the questions that come out of the mud.

At the same time that the mud seems relentless and never-ending, though, it's also true that the sun is every day getting higher and higher and offering more and more light. And those two elements of our lives—the mud and the light—live together. There is never one without the other.

A century or so ago, the theologian Karl Barth wrote a book about Mozart. In it, he said something to the effect that, in Mozart's music, there is never light without the darkness, and there is never light without the darkness. In other words, there is never in Mozart's music just a breezy and superficial sheen. That music is always aware of the pain and suffering of the world. At the same time, there is never in Mozart's music such a despair or gloominess as to drag us relentlessly down. His music always has a lilt that points to something grander and more brilliant than we can see. There's never, in his music, light without shadow. But neither is there shadow without light.

We can say the same thing about the season of Lent. Yes, there's mud that comes with the season. At the same time, though, God's shimmering grace is ever-present. It points us not only to the cross to come, but also to the resurrection that follows.

May we enter into this season in honesty and in trust. For God will go with us through it all.

Yours in Christ,

Hamilton

Worship Themes for the Lenten Season, 2023

During the month of March, in the season of Lent, we are invited to "turn" toward God again and again. Knowing how inadequate and incomplete our lives are, our theme for the season will be "Turning to God in our Brokenness." Join us!

March 5: Children & Youth Sunday; John 3:1-17;
"Being Born Again, and Again, and Again";
Kristin LeFeber preaches

March 12: Exodus 17:1-7;
"Turning to God in our Testing and Doubt";
Rev. Hamilton Throckmorton preaches

March 19: Commissioning of lay leaders: John 9:1-41;
"Turning to God in Our Unseeing";
Rev. Hamilton Throckmorton preaches

March 26: Ezekiel 37:1-14;
"Turning to God in Our Lethargy and Despair";
Rev. Hamilton Throckmorton preaches

April 2, Palm/Passion Sunday: Matthew 27:11-54;

Annual Meeting Wrap Up

Thank you all! Members and friends, you made 2022 a year of spiritual deepening and growth. Your time, effort and care is so very much appreciated. We are extremely grateful for the wonderful work of Rick Bryan and our 2022 Lay Leadership for a successful year and an excellent Annual Meeting this past Sunday. We covered much ground and the resounding message is: Federated is in a very good place and we are poised for our best year yet!

Dreams and Spiritual Growth

Women's Retreat

Women's Retreat Update
Dreams and Spiritual Growth
March 10-11, 2023

Mount Saint Benedict Monastery Erie, PA

Registration deadline for the Women's Retreat is fast approaching, March 3rd. We have only three (3) spots left and encourage you to sign up today. This retreat promises to be a rich exploration of the world of dreams and God's presence in it.

Sign up on Realm, or by calling the church office. Cost for this retreat is $65 and includes room and all meals. Registration is not complete until payment is received. Once you sign up, you will be emailed more details.

We invite you to join us for this time of spiritual retreat. Set in a contemplative atmosphere, we will consider what God desires for us, and what God may be communicating to us through our dreams. We will look at what dreams are and study a dream from scripture to learn how we might apply such learning to our own dreams. We will also explore the dream as a source of God's ongoing revelation to us, as we seek to live more wholistic lives.

For questions contact Rev. Betsy Wooster at bwooster@fedchurch.org or Mary Senechal at msart@windstream.net.

See you on March 10th at the Mount Saint Benedict Monastery!

Generosity and Giving Update

Are you Andrew Anonymous?

Federated is so thankful to members who make donations from their investment accounts! However, in one circumstance, we don't know yet who to thank. So far, the credit goes to Andrew Anonymous.

There was a beginning-of-the-year donation sent to the church through TD Ameritrade with no donor name attached:

- ◇ Was this from you?
- ◇ Was this for a Generosity 2022 intention, a non-pledge gift, or a Generosity 2023 payment?

The information the church receives from the investment companies does not include the member's name.

If this was from you, please call or email Janis Stefanchik, our bookkeeper, at business@fedchurch.org or 440-247-6490 x114.

Rev. Hamilton Throckmorton
Federated Church
76 Bell Street
Chagrin Falls, Ohio 44022

Dear Rev Throckmorton,

Thank you and the Federated Church so much for your generous donation of $22,000 on January 29, 2023 in response to our grant funding request for our computer program. Our goal was to inform the Federated Church committee members of the evolving needs in the Mt. Pleasant Community. Based on the Federated Church member's response, our request was generously received.

The Thea Bowman Center is a critical anchor in a community that has faced extraordinary challenges. Your support and that of so many other committed donors enables us to adjust to current community needs. Our youth program provides an emotionally stable, safe environment, so critical at this time for children K to 8th grades during the summer at TBC and on the Nathan Hale School campus after-school. At the Center, adults connect to computer literacy training, resources and job opportunities as well as GED classes. Seniors' access to computer literacy is life-changing. We are graciously thankful for your donation to support our programming that will not only assist the people we serve but will also provide positive community energy going forward!

We thank you for your support. We can't fix it all, but we will do as much as we can because of you!

With sincere gratitude,

Ella Thomas
Executive Director

Mission & Service

One Great Hour of Sharing

One Great Hour of Sharing, as part of Our Churches' Wider Mission, is the special mission offering of the United Church of Christ that carries God's message of love and hope to people in crisis. The UCC works with international partners in more than 70 countries to provide sources of clean water, food, education and health care, small business micro-credit, advocacy and resettlement for refugees and displaced persons, and emergency relief and rehabilitation. OGHS also supports domestic and international ministries for disaster preparedness and response.

A video showing some of the assistance given to needy souls will be displayed at the March 12 Sunday service. A collection will be received on March 19.

Donations can also be made online at fedchurch.org/giving. Mark OGHS in the memo line.

MedWish International

Federated Church has reconnected with MedWish International. MedWish, a past Christmas Eve Offering recipient, Saves Lives and the Environment by repurposing surplus medical supplies and equipment to provide humanitarian aid to people in need. Recently, MedWish was elated to receive Federated's first delivery of donated medical supplies. Most of the items delivered by Lee Johns were wheelchairs and walkers that had been stored at the church and FLC for years. Executive Director Brittany Latz said they could use many more wheelchairs, as they are in short supply, and badly needed. Other mobility devices are also welcome. If you have a wheelchair or other Medical Equipment to donate, please contact Marty Culbertson or bring items to the church during business hours. We are also excited to announce we are starting a monthly volunteer opportunity to sort donated supplies at the MedWish facility. Possible times are weekdays, both AM and PM, and on Saturday mornings. Groups of us could carpool to their facility at 1625 E. 31st St. in Cleveland. Contact Kathy Kolcaba if you are interested and for further information: Kathykolcaba@yahoo.com.

Primetime

Hello Everyone!

We have moved to The Spire so we can invite everyone to join our fun—please join us for an event, lunch or to learn something new. We love being together! Looking ahead we have much on the horizon and so very much to be grateful for, including each other.

Primetime Day Out: Theatre

Sunday, March 26 at Noon, play at 2 PM

Meet at 17 River Grille at Noon for lunch. 17 River is a welcome staple in our Chagrin Falls Village. It overlooks the falls and is conveniently located at 17 River Street Chagrin Falls, Ohio 44022. In addition to the normal menu, there will be brunch specials.

After lunch, walk or drive across the street to the Chagrin Valley Little Theatre to see Something's Rotten. It is 16th Century London and playwright Bottom brothers are outshined by the rock-star playwright, William Shakespeare. Desperate to succeed, they take the advice of Nostradamus's nephew, risking everything to produce what they believe will be the show of the future: the musical!

Cost: $20

Wondrous Wednesdays

The Imagination of the Soul: Why Creativity Matters.

Wednesday, March 15th, 5:30 PM

Fellowship Hall

Guest Speaker: Mary Senechal

Many people who read the word creativity, wonder what it has to do with them. So many people have said to me, "I'm not particularly creative." "I can't draw." And for men the word 'creative' conjures up images of "needlepoint and flower painting" as one man said to me. So why consider something deeper and broader? The Celtic philosopher and theologian John O'Donohue defines soul as "the place where the imagination lives." Come for a time to explore the depths of the imagination, and why it might matter for our souls.

Wednesday March 15th, Mary Senechal will give a presentation entitled "The Imagination of the Soul; Why Creativity Matters." She has a vast background in visual arts creativity, and is a leader in Spiritual discernment. Both will be combined in this event.

Mary will speak at 7 PM in Fellowship Hall, accompanied by visuals. The Wondrous Wednesdays Community Dinner will precede her at 5:30 PM.

This promises to be a very inspirational evening. Sign up downstairs at the Angel Desk just inside the parking lot door. Or sign up online through Realm or fedchurch.org/events.

We want to be sure to make enough food!

We appreciate sign ups, to plan the amount of food needed. But, if you can show up at the last minute, please do! Your life will be enriched; guaranteed!"

Creation Care Tip of the Month

Planting Trees

a Wonderful Way to Care for God's Creation

- ❖ Trees give off oxygen that we need to breathe.
- ❖ Trees reduce the amount of storm water runoff, which reduces erosion and pollution in our waterways and may reduce the effects of flooding.
- ❖ Many species of wildlife depend on trees for habitat. Trees provide food, protection, and homes for many birds and mammals.
- ❖ It is best to plant plants that are native to this area, it is the most helpful to the environment.

The Community Life Collaborative

Community Life Collaborative to Engage in Topics of Justice

Join the conversation! Throughout March and into April, the CLC continues to curate community conversations with local partners to bring light to issues of creation care and jurisprudence. The CLC's "Deep Roots Initiative" and "Our Nature Series" offer several opportunities to engage community conversations and action at the Family Life Center and in spaces around the broader region.

The Gardenview Gallery continues to engage hearts & conversation through art:

- Deep Roots Initiative: The Sacred Ally Quilt Ministry welcomed 140 community members, inspired and moved. Thanks to the partnering efforts and faithful offerings from SJAM, Heartland Conference, Living Water Association, the CLC and Chagrin Arts for this transformative catalyst for conversation and change!
- Our Nature: Bees, Bugs, and Pollinators exhibit will teach of the vital importance of pollinators to our whole lives.

March 11: Deep Roots: Strengthening Roots, 1:00 @ FLC

Hand2Hand founder and director, Veronica Robinson, shares her efforts to create programming for at-risk youth, helping them with skills they need to navigate life and excel as adults. With ties to many other organizations, H2H works to create a deeper sense of community with its constituents.

March 16: Deep Roots: "Community Conversation" with South Street Ministries, hybrid.

South Street Ministries will share how they equip and inspire restoration of community, economy, and faith with a holistic approach to community development, leaning into community voice and leadership. Join the conversation.

March 18: Our Nature Workshop: Caring for Our Watershed presented at Cascade Lofts Trailhead Event Space, 21 West North Street, Akron 44302 (on the edge of the Towpath Trail in Akron). Bring your family and explore the Cascade Valley Neighborhood through this interactive experience for all ages. Learn from local community leaders about how we can care for "our place": the Cuyahoga Valley Watershed and Lake Erie Basin. Interactive stations from local experts, a conversation circle, and a Water Walk led by Sharon Day for an indigenous perspective of place-based ministry. The walk will be from 2-5PM (including walk).

March 25: Deep Roots: Panel discussion by the "Hell and Back Gang", lunch and music 11-2PM at the FLC, hybrid event. The Hell and Back Gang is a 2020 book highlighting accounts of seven individuals who have been through the prison system and are now working to network resources in society (personal, material, employment) for transitioning out of prison and staying free.

April 8: Our Nature: Beginning to End the Climate Crisis. Climate "fresk" workshop & book signing at the FLC facilitated by internationally acclaimed Climate Activists, Alexander Repenning and Luisa Newbauer. While on a book tour across the USA, the authors selected the FLC as their mid-west site!

Youth & Family

"You're here to be light, bringing out the God-colors in the world. God is not a secret to be kept. We're going public with this, as public as a city on a hill. If I make you light-bearers, you don't think I'm going to hide you under a bucket, do you? I'm putting you on a light stand. Now that I've put you there on a hilltop, on a light stand—shine! Keep open house; be generous with your lives..."

Middle School Youth Group News!

Hello Federated Families!

Middle school age children are welcome to join the new youth group! All 6th-8th graders are invited to join our regular meetings and explore faith through fellowship and mission projects. Our ultimate goal is to help recognize our God given gifts and talents so we can share them with the church and community through mission projects.

The group will meet at the church on Sunday evenings 4:30-6:00 pm March 5th - May 21, with a 3 week break for Spring/Easter Break.

Questions and ideas are welcome, and we look forward to our journey together.

Many Blessings,
